PHOTOGRAPHER IN RESIDENCE

There is nowhere quite like the middle of nowhere to succumb to a serious case of lens-envy. Safari goes hand-in-hand with photography, and being in such a stunning and surreal environment naturally stirs our instinct to capture it all and take it home with us.

From the beginner to the professional, being out in the bush is a great place to let your creativity loose through the medium of your camera: the landscapes, the wildlife, the people, the light... the sheer range of photographic potential is staggering.

DAY 1 • 2 • 3 • 4

Serian 'The Original' lies in the private Mara North Conservancy, and the beauty of this location is that only 10 other camps have access to it – so the feeling of having your own personal piece of Africa is a luxury that we have in spades.

DAY 5

Set in our own conservation area that no one has access to but us, we have built a little tree house above a lively salt lick on the Mara River. A fantastic position to perch and watch the world go by, by night nothing but branches between you and the stars. Walking this wild space, you will feel the opening of your senses, sharpening in response to the immediacy of the wilderness: vision, sound, smell all respond to the challenge of perceiving and reading the primordial signals of the bush.

DAY 6•7•8

Heading southwards across Rhino Ridge and past Paradise Plains, you will reach Nkorombo – our cosy little mobile camp, nestled in an olive grove on the Mara riverbanks. We're right next to a lively salt lick, and sightings often feature black rhino, as lion and leopard on the lookout for kill. There is an abundance of prey in this area, and it's the perfect spot for spectacular game viewing – and from June to November, is a front-row seat for watching the wildebeest and zebra as they make their crossings of the Mara river mere metres away.

The perfect place for a campfire adventure, Nkorombo is deliciously intimate: the sounds of rushing water are punctuated by languorous laughing hippo and animals visiting to drink.

DAY 9

Take a slow drive to the airstrip and keep your eyes peeled for one last lion sighting before boarding the flight home.

"Another weekend in Paradise! Nature is a gift we have to protect, hospitality is a gift you need to deserve. Serian offers us Nature and hospitality!"
